Jenn Kavanaugh Named New R.O.I.I.® Select Director

OLYMPIA- The Building Industry Association of Washington (BIAW) is excited to announce Jenn Kavanaugh as Director of the R.O.I.I.® Select program. As the oldest and largest construction retro group in the state, R.O.I.I.® Select has returned over $500 million in refunds to participating companies since 1982.

Kavanaugh has over 16 years of experience at BIAW working on the R.O.I.I.® Select team, advancing from Enrollment Coordinator to Administrative and Marketing Director, and now to her new role as R.O.I.I.® Select Director.

“In 2020, Kavanaugh helped lead the R.O.I.I.® Select team to deliver a 34% refund on Department of Labor & Industries (L&I) premiums to the members of the program. She also organized mailing refund checks early, when they were critically needed, to support member participants during the COVID-19 pandemic,” said BIAW Executive Vice President Greg Lane.

“Her dedicated and experienced leadership will undoubtedly keep R.O.I.I.® Select the premier retro program in the residential construction industry.”

Kavanaugh’s goals as director are to find additional ways to continue to add value to the program and help build safer businesses through assistance and new educational opportunities.

“Our program is in the best place it's ever been, and that is because we continually evolve, innovate and improve,” said Kavanaugh.

“I want to refine what we've built together and lead the program to the next level.”
