

How You Can Become a Qualified Agent

If you are currently an insurance agent and would like to become associated with BIAW's Building Industry Insurance Program (BiiP), you must be a member in good standing with BIAW and your local homebuilders association. Please contact the following management company(s) to find out how you can become a qualified agent. Once you have become a qualified agent, the management company(s) will contact BIAW and you will be added to the list of current qualified agents.
